

KLOVE serves me almost every day in my community. I listen to the Fargo satellite station or listen on-line at home. It has had an extremely positive impact on my life.

If KLOVE were displaced our entire listening area would be so disappointed.

There are so few radio stations that play encouraging music like KLOVE.

KLOVE's entire mission is serving the good of public interest. There are helpful messages and most of all beautiful music.